

To-Do List before the ASHP Midyear Clinical Meeting

- Register for the Midyear Clinical Meeting
 - Consider registering for PPS
- Prepare your CV and Letters of Intent
- Order business cards
- Practice Interviewing, including video and phone interviews
- Seek out positive letters of recommendation
- Research residency programs
 - Review the ASHP Residency Directory and visit the webpages of all residency programs of your interest
 - Network with colleagues or mentors who may be familiar with the residency program of your interest
- Identify the residency program that is right for you
 - Write down your career goals
 - Narrow your residency options by:
 - Geography
 - Close to home or as far away from home as possible?
 - Big city or small town?
 - Setting
 - Academic medical center or rural hospital?
 - Community pharmacy or ambulatory care clinic?
 - Size
 - Large vs. small program?
 - One or two co-residents or more than ten?
 - History
 - Well-established vs. new program?
 - Other factors that are important to you
- Register for PhORCAS and the Match
- Review the ASHP Midyear Clinical Meeting Educational Sessions and Events
 - Look for ASHP Midyear Clinical Meeting Student Programming sessions of your interest
 - Download the ASHP LIVE! App to stay informed about all conference updates
- Prepare for the Residency Showcase by visiting the Information for Prospective Residents page to access:
 - The most up-to-date Residency Showcase Floor Plan
 - The most up-to-date Residency Program Listing Portal

Utilize the Student Residency Guide for detailed information on the residency application process.*