
ASHP Section of Ambulatory Care Practitioners

Educational Programming

- “It Takes a Village” — Collaborating to Create Optimal Clinical Learning Environments
- Beyond Healthy People 2020: Strategies to Drive Immunization Rates
- Controversies Surrounding Antithrombotic Therapy Following Transcatheter Aortic Valve Replacement
- Developing Critical Thinking Skills in Your Trainees
- Increase Your Tolerance to Antibiotic Allergies in the Ambulatory Setting
- Innovative Practice Models: Using 20/20 Vision to Improve Care Across the Continuum
- Level-Up Your Heart Failure Interviewing and Physical Examination Game
(NOTE: This session is intended for residents and new practitioners)
- Navigating the Roadmap to Diabetes Control — Helping Your Patients See It as a Brees
- Opioid Tapering in Palliative Care — Stepping into the Mist of the Unknown
(NOTE: This session is intended for residents and new practitioners)
- Optimizing Diabetes Management Through Continuous Glucose Monitoring
- PrEParing Pharmacists to Prevent HIV
(NOTE: This session is intended for residents and new practitioners)
- Progressive Models for Underserved Patients in Rural Health Settings
- The Ambulatory Care Pharmacist’s Role in Taming the STD Epidemic: Talk, Test, Treat for the Big Three
- The Pain Debates: Separating the Red Beans from the Rice